

Open Valley Urban Ecosanctuary

Open VUE

Based within the Lindsay Creek Catchment Area

Our Vision

A protected landscape, in which effective management creates a low-pest environment and supports healthy populations of indigenous species, where the human community and cultural and historical features are valued and sustained, and where people can interact with nature on a daily basis in their own neighborhoods, enabling them to re-engage with the natural world around them.

Habitat Restoration

Riparian Rhapsody (O'week)

Collaboration and connections

Community members and Wild Dunedin

Orokonui Ecosanctuary

Trapping

City Sanctuary and Mammalian Corrections Unit

Possum traps

Inductions

Spring Clean

Waste minimisation

Collaboration Planning

Clothes Swap

Stream Health

(Support from UO students, Community and DCC and ORC)

Clean ups

Spiny Gilled Mayfly

Community Classroom workshop

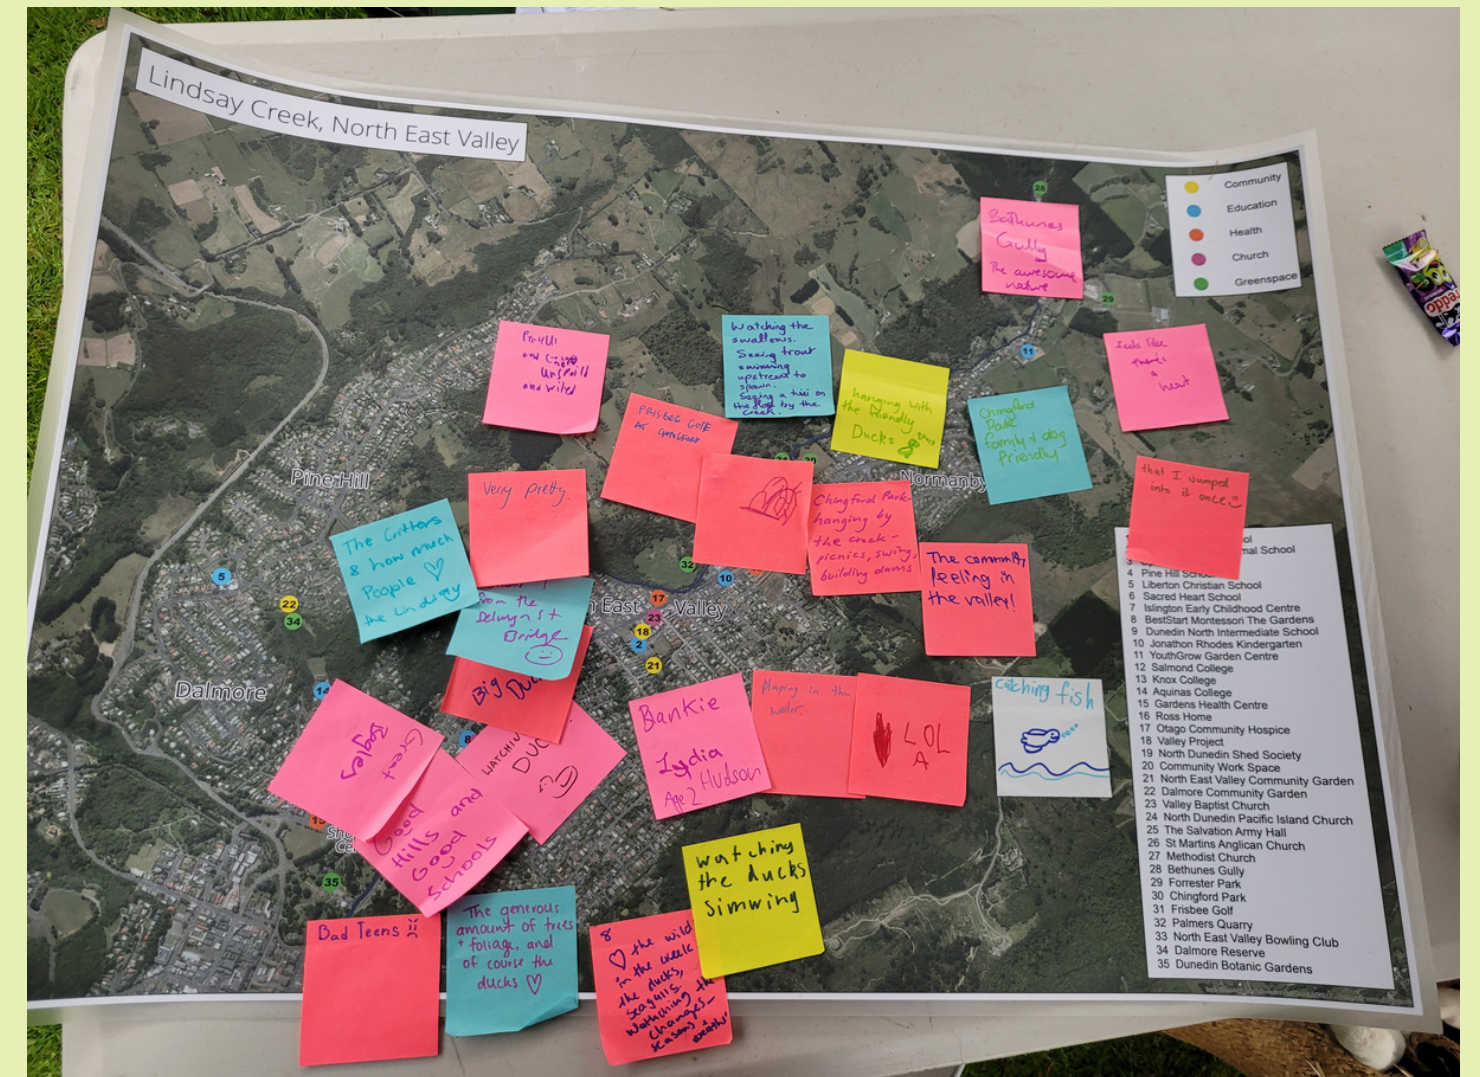

Fish and Game
Electrofishing
demo

Creekefest

Celebrating Lindsay Creek Pukehaukea and Stream Health

Open VUE stall

Show us your heart? What do you love about Lindsay Creek?

Student Collaborations

Carrington College

St Margarets college

Education

Jonathan Rhodes Kindergarten Visit

Ōpoho school hands on activities

Thank you for your support

to help us build an inclusive, connected, thriving community

Carrington College Easter Clean up